Subject: Status of May NPL Rules

The NPL rules are currently with the AA's office awaiting signature. Right now it looks like signature is projected for the end of this week, either Thursday or Friday. In the event that rules are signed Thursday, the web information and press release will likely go out Monday or Tuesday and FR publication would occur Wednesday or Thursday.

Below is the list of sites included in the rules. The most recent HQ press release is attached.

I will send out an update once I have more definitive information. Stay tuned...
